Dear Customer,

We wish to advise that after an internal review of our Hot Blocks business we have decided to move all our products to a new distributor.

Effective today, Monday the 30th of January 2023, Belle Esca will now be the sole distributor of Hot Blocks. We have made this move to streamline orders and we are confident that the team at Belle Esca will be able to ensure our products are more readily available across the state and nationally.

All orders for both Briquettes and Kindling can be sent to:
