

Food Safety Standard 3.2.2a – Food Safety Management Tools.

Summary of Changes - VIC/TAS

Vic: - changes required.

- *Food Safety Supervisor required for All Supermarkets that handle food that is unpackaged, potentially hazardous and ready-to-eat.
- *Food Safety Supervisor Certificate will now have expiry of 5 years from issue.
- *Food Safety Supervisor required for each premises from which the business operates.
- *Monitoring Records requirement remains as is.
- *Training- Complete training and have records of training also must be able to demonstrate Safe Food practices if/when requested by an authorised officer (EHO).

Tas: - changes required.

- *Food Safety Supervisor required for All Supermarkets that handle food that is unpackaged, potentially hazardous and ready-to-eat.
- *Food Safety Supervisor Certificate will have an expiry of 5 years from issue.
- *Food Safety Supervisor required for each premises from which the business operates.
- *Monitoring Records requirement remains as is.
- *Training - Complete training and have records of training also must be able to demonstrate Safe Food practices if/when requested by an authorised officer (EHO).

This information is for Metcash's retailer customers, not for public distribution.

The information provided is for general guidance only. It does not exhaustively summarise the Food Safety Standard 3.2.2A – Food Safety Management Tools requirements and should not be taken as legal advice. While we have made every attempt to ensure that the information is correct and current, laws can be changed and updated, and their application can vary based on specific products and circumstances. Retailers should obtain their own independent legal advice in respect of the application of the Food Standards Code and State Food Act Legislation in their own store(s).