

Apology

We Apologise

Due to an extreme weather event in the state last week our chilled and frozen warehouse sustained some roof damage which in turn has caused an interruption in the supply of stock for the dairy case and freezer.

Please be assured that we are working to have replacement stock on the shelves as soon as possible.

We thank you for your understanding.